Matthew Haight
Kevin Miller
CPMT483
Project Views
11/13/12

Data Views

Everyone – Anyone can access the website to browse the menu and company information. Anyone can also create a Customer account.

Customer – In addition the above rights, Customers can edit their own account, and create orders for delivery or pickup.

Administrator – In addition the above rights, the Administrator of the application can

- Access or change any of the product and category data within the application using the interface within the application.
- Add, edit or hide menu items, coupons, or merchandise.
- Add/edit/remove user accounts.

Owner – In addition the above rights, the owner

- Edit the company information, such as address and phone number.
- Get reports on the online orders.